The graph of sizes vs time taken for my algorithm excluding the sort. It seems to take O(N+M) time with N being the size of the first list of intervals and M being the size of the second list of intervals. Each data point is the average of 50 timings